FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Frederictonian Appointed to NANB Board of Directors

FREDERICTON, June 2, 2009 — Aline Saintonge of Fredericton, has joined the twelve member board of directors of The Nurses Association of New Brunswick (NANB) for a term beginning February 19, 2009 through August 31, 2010.

Mme Saintonge, newly appointed Public Director by the Lieutenant-Governor, has worked extensively in both the public and private sectors primarily in the Department of Wellness, Culture and Sport as Manager and Director of various divisions and services. Later, she was named Deputy Head of NB Culture and Sport Secretariat and was mandated to develop cultural policy for the province. Mme Saintonge now offers her expertise in management consultant work with S & L Transactions Ltd.

Throughout her career, she has volunteered on numerous boards including Vice-President of the New Brunswick Foundation for the Arts and continues to maintain a music teaching license on the piano.

“We are privileged to welcome such a dynamic public member to our Board of Directors,” expressed

Monique Cormier-Daigle, President of NANB, New Brunswick's professional regulatory body representing 8900 registered nurses and nurse practitioner in the province. "Mme Saintonge will contribute to the future of the profession of nursing in New Brunswick representing the public's interest as we face many significant challenges not the least of which is health human resources, ensuring access to primary health care services and maintaining a publicly funded, not-for-profit health care system."

The Board of Directors are meeting today June 2nd at NANB headquarters in Fredericton.
