FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Celebrating Excellence ~ NANB Pays Tribute to Six Outstanding RNs.

FREDERICTON, June 3, 2009 — The Nurses Association of New Brunswick (NANB) hosts the biennial Awards Banquet today at the Delta Hotel Fredericton recognizing six New Brunswick RNs who have demonstrated advocacy, leadership, and exceptional contributions in advancing and maintaining standards of nursing.

This year's recipients will be awarded Excellence in Clinical Practice, various Awards of Merit including: Research; Administration; Nursing Practice; and Education as well as Entry-level Nurse Award.

“The Awards Banquet provides the Association an opportunity to honour just a few of New Brunswick's finest RNs,” says Monique Cormier-Daigle, President of NANB, New Brunswick's professional regulatory body representing 8900 registered nurses and nurse practitioners in the province. “This celebratory event sets the stage for an evening of pride in a profession shared amongst colleagues, friends, and families alike.”

The Banquet begins at 19 00 in the Grand Ballroom at the Delta Hotel Fredericton.
