

Nurse Practitioner FAQ's

What is a prescriber number?

A nurse practitioner who is registered with NANB will receive a prescriber number from the Practitioner Registrar at Medicare. The prescriber number identifies the NP to the pharmacist as a provider with the authority to write a prescription.