

Nurses Association
OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Q&A- Entry-to-practice Exam

Should NB adopt a new exam, will it be accepted by other jurisdictions across Canada?

We are not certain. Standardizing entry- to- practice requirements as much as possible enhances the opportunity for nurses to become registered in a different province. This is one of the reasons all nurses in Canada (exception Quebec) have written the same entry-to-practice exam for approximately 40 years.