Nursing Student: NANB Practice Department Program Support

The Nurses Association of New Brunswick is seeking a nursing student for summer employment in our Practice Department.

The successful candidate will be responsible for conducting literature and jurisdictional reviews on topics such as leadership in nursing, professionalism, documentation, standards for nursing education, simulation, best practice in program approval and other identified healthcare or education topics. Using this research, you will be responsible to develop presentations and/or webinars to be used for educational purposes for registered nurses and nurse practitioners. This work will require collaboration with the practice and education team.

The ideal candidate will have 2-3 years of nursing education and be currently enrolled in a nursing program, excellent communication and research skills, video/graphic design abilities, and experience with presentation development and delivery.

Preferred applicants will be eligible for funding under the Canada Summer Jobs Program.

This position is for 8 weeks between June 24 and August 30, 2019.
