

Nurse Practitioner FAQ's

What if I want to prescribe for patients that reside in another province where a prescription drug monitoring program exists (for example, in Nova Scotia)?

If you are prescribing for patients that reside outside of New Brunswick, you will need to meet the requirements for the province in which the patient resides. NANB recommends that NPs contact the Pharmacy regulator for the province in which their patient plans to buy the medication.