NOMINATION DEADLINE MARCH 1, 2024

NOMINATIONS FOR THE 2024 ELECTIONS ARE NOW BEING ACCEPTED

Be a nursing leader. Seek the nomination to NANB's Board of Directors and become part of the most progressive association of health professionals in New Brunswick.

Qualifications

The successful candidates are visionaries who want to play a leadership role in creating a preferred future. Interested persons must:

- be registered with NANB;
- have the ability to examine, debate and decide on values that form the basis for policy;
- understand pertinent nursing and health related issues; and
- have a willingness to embrace a leadership and decision-making role.

Role

The Board of Directors of the Nurses Association of New Brunswick (NANB) is the governing body for the organization. Board directors are collectively responsible for strategic direction, risk management, and monitoring of NANB operations to ensure that work is achieved to meet strategic objectives.

Information

For further information, please contact NANB at nanb@nanb.nb.ca.

Why should I run for office?

This is your opportunity to:

- Influence health care policies;
- Broaden your horizons;
- Network with leaders;
- Expand your leadership skills; and
- Make things happen in the nursing profession.

How can I become a candidate?

Any practising member of the Association may nominate or be nominated for positions on the board of directors of the Association. Nominees for president-elect must be willing to assume the presidency.

Nominations submitted by individuals must bear the signatures and registration numbers of two practising members. Nominators must obtain the consent of the candidate(s) prior to submitting their names.

Nomination restrictions

- Only nominations submitted on the proper forms signed by current practising members will be valid.
- No director may hold the same elected office for more than six consecutive years (two terms).
- A director is eligible for re-election after a lapse of two years.
- If there is only one person nominated, the nominee is elected by acclamation and no vote will be required.

Information on candidates will be posted on the NANB website in March 2024.
Voting will take place online.
