

2024 Nominations for Public DirectorsThe Organization

The Nurses Association of New Brunswick (NANB) is a professional regulatory organization that exists to protect the public and support nurses by promoting and maintaining standards for nursing education and practice and by advocating for healthy public policy.

The Board of Directors

The NANB is seeking interested members of the public to serve as public directors on the Board of Directors. The Board has 12 members, three of whom are members of the public. The role of the public director is to provide the Board with a public, non-nursing, consumer perspective on issues as they relate to nursing and health care in New Brunswick.

The Board meets monthly (virtual meetings as well as 3-4 in-person meetings per year in Fredericton) and may hold additional teleconferences between meetings. This represents a time commitment of approximately 10-12 days per year.

Qualifications

It is desirable that a public director has:

- an interest in health and welfare and in health matters generally;
- previous committee or board experience;
- time to devote to the role and be knowledgeable about the nursing profession; and
- volunteer or work experience that demonstrates acting in the public interest.

Appointment

Two of the public director positions on the Board are appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and one is appointed by the Minister of Health from a list of candidates submitted by the NANB. The appointments are for three-year terms. As a volunteer position, only expenses will be reimbursed.

Nominations can be submitted by email to nanb@nanb.nb.ca or by mail to:

Governance Committee:
Nurses Association of New Brunswick
165 Regent Street
Fredericton, NB

Nomination Form

The following nomination for public member is hereby submitted for the NANB Board of Directors. The nominee has granted permission to submit their name and has consented to serve, if appointed by the government of NB. All of the required documents accompany this form.
